Dear Mr. Colvin:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Donors Capital Fund, I am pleased to enclose a grant in the amount of $439,500.00 to the Florida State University Foundation for the "Commonsense Economics for Life" project at the Stavros Center for Economic Education. This gift was made possible through the generosity and recommendation of an account holder who wishes to remain anonymous. However, if you would like to acknowledge receipt of this grant, you may write Donors Capital Fund and we will forward your correspondence to the appropriate account holder.

A gift receipt should not be provided to any party as a result of this grant. Donors Capital Fund has provided this grant. Donors Capital Fund does not require a gift receipt for tax purposes.

In accepting this grant, your organization agrees to use the grant for the purpose specified and subject to the conditions set forth below. If your organization is unable to accept this grant, you agree not to deposit the enclosed grant check or to return funds previously wired to you.

Donors Capital Fund is a philanthropic supporting organization (501(c)(3), 509(a)(3)) associated with DonorsTrust. Both organizations were formed to promote liberty through limited government, personal responsibility, and free enterprise, and are designed to provide donors with a means of protecting and exercising their charitable intent through a variety of philanthropic services, including donor-advised funds. We are pleased to be able to assist you in your work. If you have any questions regarding this grant or would like to learn more about Donors Capital Fund, please feel free to call us or visit our website at www.donorscapitalfund.org.

We wish you continued success in your work to promote liberty.

Sincerely,

Whitney L. Ball
President
